

Have Less Stress: Pay Someone to Do It

Too much to do? Here are people who can make your life easier.

By Caitlin Fairchild Published Monday, November 29, 2010

It can be hard to really relax until the closet is organized and the bills are paid. The following professional organizers and errand runners can help you tick things off your to-do list. All work in DC, Virginia, and Maryland.

Dynamic Organizing

Silver Spring; 301-792-8367

301-792-8367

A member of the National Association of Professional Organizers, Laura Cambridge often coordinates moves for people relocating to Washington and seniors who are downsizing, but she can also help those staying in place. Fee: $75 an hour, with a three-hour minimum.

This article first appeared in the December 2010 issue of The Washingtonian